Welcome!

Enrollment is now closedfor the Fall 2026 session of Solomon Coyle's Project Management Training for the commercial interiors industry.

Please email us at support@solomoncoyle.com to indicate your interest in the Winter session scheduled to start in March 2027.

About the Program

This Project Management Training is for non-aligned dealers, installers, and manufacturers, as well as for Allsteel, Kimball Int'l, and Teknion-aligned dealers. It is a specialized professional development program designed for people who manage or support contract furniture projects.

Fall 2026 Class Schedule

Instructors David Solomon and Shelley Rosetta share methods, tips, and techniques to help your dealership avoid costly mistakes, reduce and eliminate margin erosion, enhance profitability, and increase customer satisfaction. Each session is designed to provide you with an unbeatable interactive learning experience with the convenience of connecting from your workplace, job site, or home office.

If you have questions regarding the class schedule, Microsoft Teams, or other administrative matters, please email support@solomoncoyle.com.

General classes will be held from 3:00-4:30 pm ET on Mondays and Wednesdays.
