Solomon Coyle Welcomes Strategic Business Developer Ashley Baker to Its Team

Solomon Coyle is pleased to welcome Ashley Baker as the newest member of its consulting team. Ashley will work closely with Solomon Coyle peer groups focusing on fostering an environment of collaboration, conversation, strategic business development and problem-solving. Her passion for research and efficiency helps elevate and validate the experience of business development for clients in the ever-changing commercial interiors sector.

Ashley's experience in the non-profit, agriculture and commercial interiors sectors allows her to draw from a variety of business strategies and styles in support of helping distributors reach their business goals. Before joining Solomon Coyle, she specialized in real estate project lifecycle process planning and global portfolio management at a major manufacturer.

Founder David Solomon shares, "We are thrilled to welcome Ashley Baker to Solomon Coyle. Her passion for research, dedication to process improvement, and remarkable ability to build strong relationships make her the perfect fit for our dynamic team. As we embark on new horizons in Education, Data & Analytics, Peer Groups, and Consulting, Ashley's wealth of knowledge, expertise and unwavering industry curiosity will undoubtedly benefit our clients and contribute to our continued growth and innovation."
